

Call for Papers and Posters

Deadline May 31, 2007

Papers and poster submissions are being accepted for consideration for presentation at the Omaha 2007 meeting. Submissions should fall into one of the theme areas:

- Research – surveys, assessment, statistics, theories, overviews
- Teaching and learning – methods, strategies, models, one-on-one, classes, virtual
- Electronic information and delivery – collection development, e-books, databases, web technology
- Administration and support services – program development, ILL, document delivery
- Collaboration – librarian, faculty, staff, consortia, etc.
- Marketing and Publicity – methods, achievements

A variety of presentation formats will be considered:

- Paper presentation – traditional lectured discussion (15 minutes)
- Panel discussion – prepared statements and discussion of various perspectives (60-90 minutes)
- Workshop – a short but intense overview of a specific topic that provides attendees with specific skills (60-90 minutes)
- Discussion group – prepared discussion points on a topic by a moderator interacting with the audience (30-45 minutes)
- Poster – poster board or electronic (1 hour poster session)

Submission Requirements

All abstracts must be submitted under the following criteria:

- .doc or .rtf document format
- 12 point font
- Title
- Authors and affiliation
- Theme and format (see above)
- Abstract length can be no more than 500 words. Panel discussion, workshops, and discussion groups must specify specific talking points, activities, and perspectives.
- Any special equipment requirements

Submit to Siobhan Champ-Blackwell at siobhan@creighton.edu