

Midcontinental Chapter of the Medical Library Association

The Midcontinental Chapter of the Medical Library Association (MCMLA) is a professional organization of individuals and institutions in the health sciences library field.

The states encompassed by MCMLA are South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming, and Utah.

MCMLA operates with bylaws, elected officers, and committees. Representatives from MCMLA also serve on various MLA committees and councils.

Benefits of Membership:

- Discussions/collaborations with colleagues
- Continuing education classes, virtual and in person
- Leadership positions available
- Honors and Awards

Lynne Fox receiving
2010 Hetzner Award for Excellence in Librarianship

Eligibility for Membership:

Membership is open to any individual working in or interested in hospital or health sciences librarianship -- including persons in mental health, pharmaceutical, dental, and veterinary libraries; medical records departments; and health-related industry.

Members do not need to be members of MLA or located within the region.

www.mcmla.org

Cost of Membership:

Annual dues are $30. Student memberships are available for FREE for 2 years.

Membership Application:

Available at <http://www.mcmla.org/join>. Online or mail in payment is accepted.

Annual Meetings:

Annual meetings are held in the fall, usually September or October. The location rotates among the states in the Chapter.

- 2011 – St. Louis
- 2012 – Kansas City
- 2013 – Utah

The meeting offers continuing education courses, poster and paper sessions, and many opportunities to network with colleagues.

Connect with MCMLA!

Website

<http://www.mcmla.org>

Facebook

Midcontinental Chapter of the Medical Library Association

MCMLA-L Listserv for members

Quarterly newsletter

mcmla express Volume 32 Issue 2
May 2011
NEWSLETTER OF THE MIDCONTINENTAL CHAPTER OF THE MEDICAL LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Executive Secretary

Peggy Mullaly-Quijas

mullaly-quijas@umkc.edu

(816)-235-1871