

2005 – 2006 MCMLA Education Committee: Goals and Objective

RSVP List of Breakfast Meeting Attendees

1. Goal: Hold regularly scheduled meetings.

Objective: To keep cost down, meetings will utilize Internet Communication

Objective: Publicize Meeting dates and times well in advance of meeting date.

2. Goal: To create a smooth transition between outgoing and incoming officers and encourage involvement as a committee member.

Objective: Schedule Education Committee meeting during the MCMLA annual conference (done)

Objective: Hear recommendations for next in-coming Committee Chair

3. Goal: Facilitate and promote educational opportunities for professional growth

Objective: Collaborate with 2005 and 2006 Annual Meeting team to develop and deliver educational opportunities.

Objective: Provide varied educational opportunities and delivery methods in addition to annual meeting

Objective: Incorporate use of new technologies

4. Goal: Create MCMLA Member Institution Communication Technology (ICT) Inventory

Note: This corresponds with Recruitment Number 5 of the MCMLA 2004-05 Priorities. Page 1.

Objective: Assess MCMLA member's attitudes towards ICT for use in taking continuing education credits, peer to peer communications, and networking

Objective: Inventory MCMLA member's access to ICT

Objective: Assess MCMLA member's knowledge-base or expertise in using ICT

5. Goal: Win Leadership and Management Chapter Sharing Grant-

Objective: Apply for the Leadership and Management Chapter Sharing Grant