- Project leader for the writing of the Via Christi Libraries Five Year Strategic Plan, based on an extensive needs assessment which was paid for by an NNLM grant we received. The completed plan was presented to and received the approval of our CEO in April.
 - Strategic Plan Team Members were: Kristin Sen-Project Leader, Sue Fleming, Cam Gentry, Cheri Sellers, Phil Omenski
- Interviewed with a journalist for the publication, "Active Aging" (a newspaper for Senior Citizens in the Wichita community--put out by the Wichita Eagle newspaper) about how and where to find reliable information on the Internet. Of the many resources mentioned, I told the journalist about MedlinePlus.gov and NIHSeniorHealth.gov. I also gave tips on how to evaluate a web site for reliability. The two page article came out in the August issue. (The best part was that one of our Vice Presidents at Via Christi was contacted to do the interview and she thought one of the Via Christi librarians needed to be there. Yay!)

- Joan Stoddart and I authored an article on building in-house databases that has been accepted and approved and will appear in a future issue of Journal of Consumer Health on the Internet. Plus, I published a couple of articles in our library's newsletter.
- goLocalUtah (<http://golocalutah.org>) our regional Go Local database that we contracted with NLM to build, received a state level 2006 NCLIS health award. John Bramble and I were co-directors.
- The book, "Planning, Renovating, Expanding, and Constructing Library Facilities in Hospitals, Academic Medical Centers, and Health Organizations" was published last year. I had written a chapter for it sometime before it made it to publication, but I was happy to see that my chapter and the other materials had made it to press.
